Are you looking to level up your 40K play? Are you hoping to attend your first event but would like a bit more confidence?

If so, this is the event for you! The wonderful tournament and content creation machines at 6++ have paired with the Saffron Slam to bring you Boot Camp ++. A new Warhammer 40K training event with a simple aim – to help you become BANG AVERAGE at Warhammer 40k.

Over the course of an action-packed day, we will impart the knowledge gained from years of tournament experience, and help you become a more confident, knowledgeable 40K player. We have designed exciting training modules for you to learn and improve.

These will be incredibly fun and interactive sessions aiming to break down the concepts, provide advice, and work through examples. They will be delivered by our Dear Leader Chris, Podcast host and Team England (Social Media Lead) Tom, and the guy who shouts a lot about ravines and zombie dragons, Lewis. What more could you want?

The nearest long-stay parking is a five-minute walk away (Swan Meadow Car Park – CB10 1DA). This car park costs ~£5.00 for the day. The town centre has multiple food options for lunch (Saturday market stalls, bakeries, Subway etc.). There is also a Waitrose and a Boots within a 5-minute walk which sell all the usual lunchtime meal deal items.

The venue is fully accessible to disabled gamers. If you are thinking of attending and have any additional access requirements, please contact us at elmominiatures@outlook.com and we will try to help in any way we can.

There are on-site WCs (including disabled facilities) for your use. Free tea and coffee will be available all weekend. Snacks, beer/cider, and soft drinks will be available to purchase throughout the weekend.

We will provide all of the training materials you will need for the day. However, you will need to bring your own army. Please make sure you come prepared with:

- A 2,000pt army that is battle-forged and follows all army list creation rules as set out by Games Workshop. It does not need to be painted up yet.
- Dice, tape measure and six objective markers.
- Your Factions Codex and relevant FAQs (these can be digital).

Inclusivity at Boot Camp ++

The organisers of Boot Camp ++ are 100% committed to making everyone feel included and accepted at our events. People have commented that our previous events have had a hugely positive, fun, and welcoming atmosphere. We really want this to continue at this event.

This welcome message extends to people of all faiths, races, genders, and sexual orientations. We'd love to host you in Saffron Walden and share this amazing hobby with you.

With this being said, we will absolutely not tolerate discrimination in any form at our events. Whilst we appreciate everyone has different political views, we will not allow people to display items/clothing bearing political symbols, iconography or text at our event. This extends to any items/clothing which may be discriminatory towards, promote the hatred of, or cause offence to one or more community. If anyone is found with these items at Boot Camp ++, they will be asked to remove them. Non-compliance with our request will result in ejection from the venue.

Terms & Conditions of Ticket Purchase

By purchasing a ticket to this event, you agree to be bound by the following Terms & Conditions:

1. Refund Policy

It is never fun to have to drop out of an event, but we understand that sometimes life can get in the way of playing with our toy soldiers. If you can no longer attend the event, please contact us by email (elmominiatures@outlook.com) as soon as possible to request a refund. We will try to accommodate your request if we can, but once we commit to the cost of the venue, boards, prizes and terrain, we cannot always recover your money.

If the event has not sold out, refunds will be available if requested greater than one month prior to the start of the event (i.e. before 6th June 2024). Refunds after this date will not be given. After the event has sold out, refunds will only be given if someone from the reserve list purchases your ticket. If nobody from the reserve list purchases your ticket, refunds will not be given, regardless of what date the refund is requested.

2. Safeguarding Policy Summary

This event is marketed at adults (i.e., people >18 years old) who are expected to take reasonable responsibility for their own wellbeing and safety. That being said, we are pleased to welcome younger members of the 40k community to our events. The parents or legal guardians of any event attendee under the age of 18 ('underage') are considered to have accepted the following conditions by purchasing a ticket, or by the underage attendee purchasing a ticket of their own accord:

- We cannot accept legal responsibility for the safety of underage attendees. We do not hold child specific teaching, first aid, or welfare qualifications.
- It is recommended that any underage individual be accompanied to the event by their parent/legal guardian at all times. For clarity, if this parent/guardian is not playing in the event themselves, they do not need to purchase a ticket.

- The parent/legal guardian of any underage attendee accepts the event has an 'open door' policy, during which general members of the public will be able to enter or leave the venue as they please. As such, the organisers of the Saffron Slam cannot control who comes into contact with their underage attendee during the event.
- The organisers of the Saffron Slam do not carry out any child-welfare vetting procedures on other attendees at the event, and it must not be assumed that other attendees have been deemed safe to interact with underage attendees.
- Alcoholic drinks will be available for sale at the Saffron Slam and other attendees are likely to consume alcohol during the event.

We recommend the parent/legal guardian, or any underage attendee, contact us to discuss the above prior to purchasing a ticket so we can help ensure you are clear on what the event entails. We will ask you to fill out and sign a Parental Consent Form prior to the event.

Our full Safeguarding Policy and the associated documents can be found here: Safeguarding | Elmo Miniatures.
